of the Sale of a Portion of the Assets of)	EXTENSION, NUNC PRO
Wyboo Plantation Utilities, Inc. to Clarendon)	TUNC, FOR County)	COMPLIANCE WITH
)	ORDER NO. 2008-852

This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (“Commission”) on the request of Mark S. Wrigley (“Wrigley”) of Wyboo Plantation Utilities, Inc. (“Wyboo”) for an extension of time, nunc pro tunc, to come into compliance with a certain criterion set forth in Commission Order No. 2008-852.

On December 30, 2008, the Commission issued Order No. 2008-852 in Docket No. 2008-445-WS approving a twenty (20) day notice period relative to the application by Mark S. Wrigley to sell part of Wyboo that serves Clarendon County to Clarendon County. However, the twenty (20) day notice period was granted subject to conditions. Specifically, the condition set forth in Order No. 2008-852 that is subject of Wrigley’s present request states:

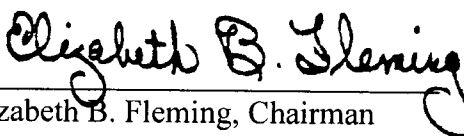

Wrigley must provide a written commitment to personal jurisdiction over him in Docket No. 2006-327-WS, the case brought by the Office of Regulatory Staff regarding alleged unauthorized charges. This verified statement must be provided prior to the Notice deadline of January 19, 2009, or this waiver will be subject to withdrawal and requirement of a new Notice period.

By letter from Wrigley's counsel filed January 27, 2009, Wrigley requests an extension of the January 19, 2009 deadline, nunc pro tunc, until and including January 29, 2009, for the submission of the written commitment to personal jurisdiction over him in Docket No. 2006-327-WS. According to Wrigley's counsel, the Office of Regulatory Staff's ("ORS") counsel has been consulted regarding the request, and ORS does not oppose the request for additional time.

After review of this matter, the Commission finds that Wrigley should be afforded additional time to come into compliance with the requirement set forth in Order No. 2008-852 as specified above. Therefore, the Commission grants Wrigley an extension, nunc pro tunc, until and including January 29, 2009, for compliance with ordering paragraph one of Order No. 2008-852.

This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further order of the Commission.
